With beautiful campuses in St. Paul and Minneapolis, a close-knit community, and a vision to be a leading Catholic university distinguished by its innovative spirit and premier Baccalaureate College for women, St. Catherine University strives to be a preeminent employer as well.

We welcome your application of employment for positions that you could best contribute to the mission of the St. Catherine University.

St. Catherine University (also known as St. Kate's) is a private Catholic liberal arts university, located in St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota, United States. Established as one of the first institutions of higher learning specifically for women in the Midwest, the school was known as the College of St. Catherine until 2009. Today St. Kate's offers baccalaureate programs for women plus graduate and associate programs for women and men.

The University enrolls more than 5,000 students annually. It is a leader in recruiting and enrolling minority students and nontraditional-aged students. St. Catherine's Weekend College — now Evening, Weekend, Online Program — was the second such program in the nation and the first in the Upper Midwest. St. Kate's was also the first private college in the nation to launch an effort to attract, welcome and retain Hmong students — making it home to one of the largest populations of Hmong scholars in the nation.

St. Kate's ranks 14th in the "Best Value - Regional Universities (Midwest)" category of the U.S. News & World Report's college rankings. The University retains its ranking - 13th among Midwest Regional Universities — in the 2013 "American's Best Colleges" guide by U.S. News & World Report. St. Kate's placed second among Minnesota institutions in its category.
