Description

Since 2006, Sing for Hope's arts outreach programs have brought hope and inspiration to thousands of individuals in under-resourced schools, public hospitals, hospices, veterans' centers, after-school programs, neighborhood centers, nursing homes, and disability networks. To date, Sing for Hope has partnered with over 250 nonprofit organizations, involved over 3,500 artists in community volunteerism, and placed over 400 artist-created Sing for Hope Pianos throughout NYC's parks and public spaces for everyone to play—a symbol and celebration of art for all. Our volunteer opportunities include performing songs at children's hospitals, creating an art project at a senior home, designing your very own Sing for Hope Piano and more!

Sing for Hope's programs include:

SING FOR HOPE PIANOS

450+ artist-created pianos placed in NYC's public spaces for all to enjoy, then transported to permanent homes in schools and hospitals, impacting 2 million+ New Yorkers & visitors.

SING FOR HOPE YOUTH ARTS

Dynamic arts programming created in partnership with the NYC Department of Education for under-resourced youth ages 4-19 benefiting 50,000+ students.

SING FOR HOPE HEALING ARTS

Collaborative concerts, bedside performances, and creative workshops serving 12,500+ patients & caregivers at 25 healthcare sites across the city.

SING FOR HOPE GLOBAL

A three-tiered initiative bringing creative arts programs to relief sites and mass transit hubs worldwide, while driving the international movement for increased inclusion of the arts in global convenings on social change.
