Winston-Salem is the anchor building and growing economy of the Piedmont region in North Carolina. As a selected to keep it that path for many years, Winston-Salem is home to the tallest office building in the region at 60 North Main Street.

Baseball is the Winston-Salem City's mascot. Many locals refer to the city as 'Winston' or informally to another nickname, 'The Dash,' comes from the fact that the City's name, although technically it is a 'city,' not a 'dash,' the nickname is only used by the local residents. It is the most likely to be known by the new or old residents of the City.

Winston-Salem has seen an explosion in growth and urbanization in the downtown area with hotels, entertainment, and apartments being constructed. In 2017, the city was ranked the
