Description

Bentley Prince Street rolls out its regal broadloom carpets for the corporate, government, education, health care, hospitality/retail, institutional, and residential markets. Its primary brands include Bentley and Prince Street for its commercial carpets and Prince Street House & Home for residential carpets. Bentley Prince Street has its own in-house product development group, which, in consultation with buyers, develops color palettes to enhance textiles, laminates, wood finishes, and furniture and wall coverings. The company is a subsidiary of Interface, the world's largest manufacturer of commercial carpets.

Message from our President

Anthony Minite

Being first in style, quality and service is simply not enough. At Bentley Prince Street we understand that we must also be leaders in our commitment to the environment and to our humanitarian responsibilities.

As the largest commercial carpet manufacturer in California, we have a responsibility to not only meet the state's strict environmental regulations, but to exceed them. We are committed to sustainable commerce while integrating style and function into every product, ultimately leading us to our goal of Mission Zero.

Our company is enriched by the strength of our associates, which is why we are committed to enriching their lives through a full-scale health and wellness program. Our allegiance to service and community starts here, with our dedicated associates, and extends all the way to you, our customer.
