Description

With more than 26,000 students enrolled at three campuses in Selden, Brentwood and Riverhead, Suffolk County Community College is the largest community college in New York State. We offer Associate in Arts (A.A.), Associate in Science (A.S.), and Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.) degrees and professional certificates in more than 70 programs of study. We encourage you to learn more about all of our educational opportunities, as well as our recognized athletics programs, student clubs, organizations and support services.

Diversity Training Seminars for Students

During the academic year, all three campuses provide diversity and sensitivity training workshops for students. Lectures, videos, interactive activities and guest speakers are all utilized to enhance the student learning experience. Interested students should check with the Office of Campus Activities for scheduled dates and times. Diversity Training for Faculty, Staff, and Administrators

During the academic year, diversity and sensitivity awareness training is provided for all college employees. Experiential, video and lecture programs provide administrators, faculty and staff with opportunities to examine the origin of stereotypes, heighten their awareness, and identify stereotypes in students. Contact the Coordinator of Multicultural Affairs or Office of Campus Activities for additional information.
