Description

Vision

To be the most sought after, unbiased provider of innovative solutions and services in support of the public good for the benefit of our nation.

Mission

Concurrent Technologies Corporation provides scientific, applied research and development solutions that:

- Incorporate innovative technology and management solutions
- Satisfy the needs of our clients and the public interest or common good
- Emphasize increased quality, effectiveness, and rapid technology transition and deployment.

Culture

Concurrent Technologies Corporation has the requisite experience, knowledge, and resources to effectively meet the diverse needs of our clients and the public interest, while fostering shared values and a spirit of working together as a One Company Company.

A Staff of High-Caliber Professionals

CTC employs more than 1,400 people. That's significant for a nonprofit, applied research and development organization. High-caliber professionals are attracted to CTC for the opportunity to work in a dynamic environment with state-of-the-art resources and an organizational culture that promotes agility, creativity, and excellence. CTC offers training and advanced educational opportunities, including CTC University, and encourages its staff to continuously update their skills.

Diversity

Concurrent Technologies Corporation (CTC) is an equal opportunity employer committed to promoting a diverse workplace. We recognize and value the differences reflected in the communities where we live and work and within our clients' organizations. We respect, appreciate, and actively work to integrate the unique and distinct perspectives, approaches, and skills that result from different ethnic, cultural, gender, and generational backgrounds
