Description

AMD (NYSE: AMD) is a semiconductor design innovator leading the next era of vivid digital experiences with its groundbreaking AMD Accelerated Processing Units (APUs) that power a wide range of computing devices. AMD's server computing products are focused on driving industry-leading cloud computing and virtualization environments. AMD's superior graphics technologies are found in a variety of solutions ranging from game consoles, PCs to supercomputers.

Our Mission :Lead through innovative, customer-centric solutions that empower businesses, enhance the digital lifestyle and accelerate global digital inclusion.

At AMD, we're looking for those who embrace the challenge of transforming the future and redefining an entire industry, one innovation at a time. Developing great technology takes more than just talent. It takes amazing people who understand how collaboration and respect for the abilities of each individual pushes us to greater heights.

Our culture—the AMD Way—is about our people, the foundation of our company. It's our differentiator that defines how we work and interact, and it creates value for our employees, customers and shareholders.

The AMD Way is about Commitment and Ownership, Customer Focus, and Innovation and Leadership. We support those core beliefs through:

Achievement: We plan and play to win in all we do, every time. Every day matters.

Accountability: We build trust by honoring our commitments.

Alignment: We work as one AMD to debate, decide, embrace and execute.

Agility: We continuously learn and improve in all aspects of our business.

When we look at our accomplishments, we look through the filter of our company culture, asking if we got there the right way—The AMD Way.

Are you up for the challenge?AMD attracts a unique breed of individuals—those who push through boundaries to embrace challenges and help drive change. Are you one of them?
