Description

Located on the shores of Lake Michigan, Milwaukee County is home to nearly one million residents, six Fortune 500 companies, a dozen universities, and hundreds of cultural venues, activities and events (www.visitmilwaukee.org). Milwaukee County government is responsible for key public functions including Parks, Transportation, Zoo, Senior Services, Criminal Justice, and Health and Human Services. In recent years, despite significant structural deficit issues, Milwaukee County government has developed balanced budgets, increased and improved critical services for residents, and spurred major economic development.

The Milwaukee County Diversity Committee strives to honor inclusiveness, advocating for education, awareness, acceptance, and outreach in the workplace and community.

Our vision:

- Effectively communicate the works of the Diversity Committee to all stakeholders.
- Promote initiatives that enhance the quality of life through inclusion and engagement.
- Provide leadership; promote equality and acceptance for all differences through education and outreach.
